THIS WEEK (24)

Chairman Allan Warrack welcomed the presence of Jack Jones, an eminent citizen from Calgary. Sitting adjacent to Dick Hunt and cutting up a few old touches, they discovered that there was a distant relationship between them. Recently returned from a cruise through the Panama Canal, Jack was in the mood to offer our Club some sound advice. Did we hear someone say there was more sound than advice?

Our congratulations to Dick Hunt on the recent arrival of a new granddaughter to enlarge his family circle; and to Nita Brown on her winning a substantial nest egg in one of the current Canadian lotteries.

A new District IV Gyro Club was installed at Salmon Arm, B.C. on March 31, 1984. A warm welcome is extended to the Gyro Club of Salmon Arm, and congratulations to Osoyoos and Vernon, the sponsoring and seconding Clubs respectively.

Ernie Siegel, recently returned from Victoria, B.C., reported that golfing conditions in the B.C. Capital were decidedly unfavorable in spite of what the Chamber of Commerce brochures might say.

Marty Larson, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, conducted the Election for the 1984-85 Officers. The following were elected unanimously:

President - Allan Warrack
1st Vice-President - Mort Morter.
2nd Vice-President - Al McClure
Secretary - Jim Humphries
Treasurer - John Pedden

Our congratulations to the above slate of Officers.

The following were elected on the Primary Ballot to contest the two 2-Year Directorship vacancies: Ron Holmes, Dick Hunt, Dick Ogilvie, Roger Russell, and Dave Webber.

Gordon Rennie won the draw.

Recently a Government Commission on Racial Discrimination held sittings throughout Alberta.

The following story, a favorite of Myron Cohen, perhaps illustrates a reverse discrimination of a sort.

During the Nazi period, Lefkowitz walked into a German police station carrying a newspaper with a job advertisement circled in red.

"You've come about this job?" asked the desk sergeant. "You must be kidding. Can't you read? We need a young man, strong and hardy, a man who doesn't wear glasses. And look - the ad specifically mentions that we want an Aryan. You're obviously a Jew. So what are you doing here?"

"I've just come to tell you," said Lefkowitz, "that on me you shouldn't count."

Let us use our powers of discrimination with discretion.
