THIS WEEK

A record attendance of some 60 odd Gyros and Gyrettes gathered for the regular noon luncheon meeting at the Mayfair Golf and Country Club on Tuesday, July 18, 1978 to pay tribute to our Padre, Reverend Dr. Jesse E. Bigelow, on his recent election as Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada for 1978-79.

Following the introduction of guests President Jack Agnew called upon the Reverend Robert Taylor, a former Moderator and Jess's long time friend and colleague, for a few words on his behalf.

Mr. Taylor, in a humorous fashion, outlined his years of friendship and church association with Jess, warned him of some of the pitfalls in the path of a Moderator, offered some words of advice from the wisdom of experience, and assured him that he would have the strong support of all his friends and the Presbyterian Church across Canada for a successful leadership year.

President Jack then presented Jess, on behalf of the Edmonton Gyro Club, a plaque to commemorate his election in 1978-79 to his Church's highest office.

Florrie Van Dusen, on behalf of the Edmonton Gyrettes, presented Margaret Bigelow with a bouquet of flowers.

This was a very delightful and happy gathering, and the good wishes and prayers of Gyros and Gyrettes will be with Jess and Margaret Bigelow in the year ahead as he provides the leadership for the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

Further to Rev. Bob Taylor's talk, it was G.K. Chesterton who remarked, "It is the test of a good religion whether you can joke about it." And to Moderator Jess the words of Pope John XXIII who said, "It often happens that I wake at night and begin to think about a serious problem and decide I must tell the Pope about it. Then I wake up completely and remember that I am the Pope."
