1. Merrill Morstad introduced his guest, Marcel Notschaele, and our guest speaker, Monte Stout.
2. The Ways and Means, Objectives and Benevolence committee chairman, Allan Warrack, presented the attached statement to the club. The committee and the club's executive are encouraging members to present their opinions on this statement in order to adopt a policy that future executives can follow.

Notice of Motion: To adopt the statement dated February 3, 1988, as the basis for the objectives of the W.M.O.B. Committee.

3. The speaker at this meeting, Mr. Monte Stout, is the acting general manager of Canada's Aviation Hall of Fame. Mr. Stout explained that the historical viewpoint of aviation is dramatized at the Hall. The hall of fame is located in 20000 square feet of space at the ~~Edmonton Convention Centre~~. The three dollar admission entitles a visitor to view 26 aircraft models, a 1200 book library, 2 flight simulators as well as numerous video screens throughout the hall. John Ross thanked Monte for his enlightning talk.
4. Stan Smith won the draw, but was not present to claim the $27.25 prize.

THE LAST WORD

- One place where you are sure to find the perfect driver is in the back seat.
- In spite of the cost of living, it's still popular.
- Wisdom is the reward you get for a lifetime of listening when you would prefer to talk.
