THIS WEEK (29)

President Tommy welcomed 1st Lieutenant Governor Jim Little. Neil Sheidow introduced his guest, Jerry Miller. The election for Directors resulted in victory for Dave Burnett and Neil Sheidow, who will each serve a 2-year term. Following the election, Committee Chairmen presented their reports which showed in general that the Edmonton Gyro Club enjoyed a successful 1982-83. The reports were brief, to the point, but complete, much like that of the story of the Baseball Game written by a grade school youngster who was told to observe the foregoing criteria.

His essay: "Game called. Rain!"

~~And now for a few items of graffiti from The Scrawl of the Wild.~~

"Death is nature's way of telling you to slow down."

"Help a nun kick her habit."

~~and now for a few items of graffiti from The Scrawl of the Wild.~~

"Death is nature's way of telling you to slow down."

"Help a nun kick her habit."

"My mother made me a homosexual." (Immediately under this, in a different hand:) "If I get her the wool, will she make me one?"

"God is dead - Nietzsche." (And under it:) "Nietzsche is dead - God."

Below a scrawl reading, "Legalize mental telepathy!" was "I knew you were going to say that!"

That's all for today.

Cheerio
