BIRTHDAYS

Congratulations to Harry Mills whose natal day falls on January 5.

SICK AND VISITING

Bill Robinson reported as follows:

1. Cyril Shaw was admitted recently to the Royal Alexandra Hospital for vascular surgery. He is now recuperating at home.
2. Jean Werner who was hospitalized for several days is now back at home.
3. Mary Simmonds is now at home after her recent accident and is able to walk without the use of a cane.
4. Jack Hamlin from time to time is able to spend a day at his home.
5. Pat Sharp, while doing a kindly deed for a neighbor during the Pre-Christmas season, had the unfortunate experience of suffering a slipped disc. She is now convalescing at home.

CORRESPONDENCE

A letter of thanks was received from Bob Rennie expressing his sincere appreciation for the hospital bed recently installed in his home under the direction of Jim Wright. Our thanks to Jim Wright and Grimshaw Trucking Ltd. (Dave Burnett) for the delivery and installation of the bed.

And now a word to those planning to attend the Denver vs Dallas Super-Bowl Football Game on Sunday, January 15, 1978.

It involves the little old lady who called the Super-Dome in New Orleans and asked the price of tickets to the Big Bowl Game.

"They are $50.00, $40.00, $30.00, $20.00 and $10.00." she was told.

"Why the different prices?" asked the L.O.L.

"They depend on how far away you are."

"Oh," she replied. "I'm in Baton Rouge."

Under those circumstances the best seat for citizens of our town is directly in front of television set.
